

I am writing on behalf of Christian radio stations across the country. I feel that these stations are a true blessing and offer a crucial ministry for a lot of people. I support and believe in their listener supported ministry and feel that they do not need to be regulated or inhibited in any way. Thank you and may the Lord bless you.